How did you hear about the Youth Food & Farm Forum?

CONCURRENT SESSIONS:

While some of our sessions will take place with the whole group, there will be four instances throughout the Forum where you will choose a session to attend based on your own interest.

Please indicate below which session you think you would like to attend, for each concurrent block. (You should have 4 x's when you're done) *Note, this is not a binding commitment and is only meant to give us a sense of numbers.

Concurrent session 1:	Planting 101 (for beginning farmers)
	Greywater Systems for Home and Farm Life (for experienced farmers)
Concurrent session 2:	Hog Butchering Demo
	Young Veggies" (Vegan Cooking Workshop)
Concurrent session 3:	Introduction to Seed Saving
	The Radical History of Food
Concurrent session 4:	Pork Cooking Workshop
	Medicinals for the Skin: From Ground to Medicine Cabinet

COMMUNITY AGREEMENTS:

The Youth Forum will operate under the following set of Community Agreements. By completing this form you are agreeing to uphold the following while attending the 2018 Youth Food and Farm Forum:

- To not consume alcoholic beverages if under 21.
- To not bring to or consume illegal substances at the Forum.
- To observe designated quiet hours.
- To respect the space at Camp McDowell -- we leave it better than we found it!
- To respect fellow Youth Food and Farm Forum attendees, whether through language, actions, or the acknowledgement of different life experiences.
- To learn from and listen to those around you.
- To choose positivity over hostility in conflict resolution.
- To refrain from all expressions of hate.

I understand that failure to uphold these community agreements impacts those around me and the community at the Youth Food and Farm Forum.
